

Don't Date The Devil

BEX | SCUM

It's unbelievable kinda inconceivable
Something like that's been hiding in your skin
It's unspeakable kinda unbreakable
We built a bond on lies and guilt and I let you in
It's too late can't undo what you said
It's too late can't undo what you did
It's too late you can't change how you think
It's too late I'm already pinned

Hopeless
I'm a victim of
Your mess
Your Jealousy
I breath
Now
I've exposed the wound
Hopeless
Your body's a sin
I confessed
Your jealousy runs deep
I've exposed the truth

It's unreasonable it was unpredictable
That you would pull those cards just to leave me on a shelf
It's infeasible it must of been strategical
To lure me in with all your doubts and come begging to me for help
It's too late you can't change how I feel
It's too late I've already realise it's real
It's too late you've broken my wings
It's too late I'd never let you back in

Hopeless
I'm a victim of
Your mess
Your Jealousy
I breath
Now
I've exposed the wound
Hopeless
Your body's a sin
I confessed
Your jealousy runs deep
I've exposed the truth
And to his next victim

Lean in and listen
Watch what you give him
He'll take it when you're sleeping

RUN

Hopeless
I'm a victim of
Your mess
Your Jealousy
I breath
Now
I've exposed the wound
Hopeless
Your body's a sin
I confessed
